

INVITATION

You are cordially invited to
The 10th Annual Australian Superfine Wool Growers' Presentation Dinner and Farm Tour

Hosted by the Australian Superfine Wool Growers' Association (ASWGA) Tasmanian Branch
Date: 2-4 June, 2023

On Friday we will be attending a tour of the Waverley (Woollen) Mills followed by a tour of the Australian Wool Handlers Facility at the Western Junction.

There will be a welcome reception at the Penny Royal Launceston.

Saturday will be spent at Campbell Town Show which is the longest continuously running agricultural show in Australia, where there is a variety of sheep and wool related displays and activities, with a feature being a fashion parade highlighting the use of wool in garment production.

Saturday also sees a tour to the nearby Tasmanian Wool Centre and Wool History Museum at Ross.

On Saturday night, the County Club Tasmania will be the venue of the ASWGA 10th Annual Reunion Dinner.

Presentations will be held for the ASWGA Fleece Competition.

The Ermenegildo Zegna Wool Awards Presentation will also be held during the course of Saturday.

On Sunday we will be visiting two ASWGA member properties

"Merton Vale" hosted by Simon and Penny Foster and
 "Patterdale" hosted by Carol Westmore, including the Glover Tour.

(Bus Transport has been arranged. Refer Registration Form)

Bookings are being taken by Donna Robinson at the office.

Please fill out the registration form attached indicating attendance.

The 10th Annual ASWGA Dinner Dinner & Farm Tour

The annual dinner and fleece competition will be held at the Country Club Tasmania which is several km from the CBD. In addition to rooms within the main complex, Country Club Tasmania have self-contained villas within a few hundred metres of the main complex. The Country Club Tasmania will be one of the bus pick-up and drop-off points.

There are over 30 accommodation options available in or near the Launceston CBD.

There will be a single bus pick-up and drop-off point in the CBD area, in Brisbane Street opposite the City Park. We therefore suggest delegates look at the following properties based on proximity (easy walking distance) to Brisbane Street and a varied cost and style of accommodation.
